5 OF 1924.

TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO CIVIL PROCEDURE.

A.D. 1924.

MALCOLM STEVENSON.]

[April 7, 1924.

5 of 1924.

1. This Law may be cited as the Civil Procedure (Amendment) Law, 1924, and shall be read as one with the Civil Procedure Law, 1885, (hereinafter referred to as the Principal Law).

Short title.

2. The following shall be read as section 93 of the Principal Law:

Writs to be issued by Village
Judge.

93.—(1) Every Village Judge shall, for the purposes of executing any judgment given by him, have power to issue writs of sale of the movable and immovable property of the judgment debtor.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 3, no such writ shall be enforced against any property which is not found within the judicial division of the Judge who issued it.

(3) Every such writ shall be issued and enforced on the same conditions and subject to the same provisions and restrictions as a writ of a like nature issued out of a Court under the provisions of the Principal Law.

Execution of judgments of Village Judge.

3. The following shall be read as section 94 of the Principal Law:

94. Where the judgment of a Village Judge remains wholly or in part unsatisfied, and no movable or immovable property of the judgment debtor sufficient to satisfy the judgment is found within the judicial division of the Village Judge:

(1) The writ of sale may be endorsed by the President or one of the Judges of the District Court within the jurisdiction of which the Village Judge Court issuing the writ is situate and may then be executed within the area over which the District Court has jurisdiction in the same manner as if it had been issued by the Village Judge within whose jurisdiction the property is situate, or

(2) The judgment creditor may apply to a District Court for execution of the judgment, and that Court may issue the same writs and orders as though the judgment had been actually given by it, and may stay execution in the same manner as it may stay execution of its own judgment, and shall have all such powers in relation to the judgment as are specified in Part IX. of the Principal Law. Provided that the District Court shall not allow costs of execution at a higher rate than those in force for Village Court cases unless it declares a finding that it was necessary and proper for the case to be brought before the District Court.

Repeal.

4. The Civil Procedure Law, 1885, section 93, and the Civil Procedure (Amendment) Law, 1923, are hereby repealed.

This Law was published in the Cyprus Gazette No. 1631 of the 11th April, 1924.
