[January 9, 1926.

BE it enacted:—

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Pensions (Amendment) Law, 1926, and shall be read as one with the Pensions Law, 1905, and the Pensions (Amendment) Law, 1924, and these Laws and this Law may together be cited as the Pensions Laws, 1905 to 1926.

Pension of officers
discharged
on the grounds of inefficiency.

2. Where an officer is removed from his office on the ground of his inability to discharge efficiently the duties thereof, and a pension, gratuity, or other allowance cannot otherwise be granted to him under the provisions of the Pensions Laws, 1905 to 1926, the Governor-in-Council, with the approval of the Secretary of State, may if he considers it justifiable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, grant such a pension, gratuity, or other allowance as he thinks just and proper, but in no case exceeding in amount that for which the officer would be qualified if he were suffering from some infirmity of mind or body likely to be permanent.
