A LAW TO AMEND THE CIVIL DEFENCE ORGANIZATION
 (EMERGENCY PROVISIONS) LAW, 1941.

C. C. WOOLLEY,] [14th April, 1942.
Governor.

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Cyprus as follows :—

Short title.

11 of 1941.

1. This Law may be cited as the Civil Defence Organization (Emergency Provisions) (Amendment) Law, 1942, and shall be read as one with the Civil Defence Organization (Emergency Provisions) Law, 1941, (hereinafter referred to as “ the principal Law ”), and the principal Law and this Law may together be cited as the Civil Defence Organization (Emergency Provisions) Laws, 1941 and 1942.

2. Section 2 of the principal Law is hereby amended by the deletion in the definition of "war service injury" of the words "the Officer certifies to have been shown to his satisfaction" and the substitution therefor of the words "is shown to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council".

Amendment of section 2 of the principal Law.

3. Section 4 of the principal Law is hereby repealed and the following section substituted therefor:—

Repeal of section 4 of the principal Law and substitution of new section.

"Pensions, gratuities and other compensation.

4. Any civil defence volunteer who sustains any war service injury shall receive such pension, gratuity or temporary incapacity allowance as the Governor in Council may determine, chargeable upon the Revenue of the Colony."

4. Section 5 of the principal Law is hereby repealed and the following section substituted therefor:—

Repeal of section 5 of the principal Law and substitution of new section.

"Relief for widows or families of civil defence volunteers killed during service.

5.—(1) The widow or family of any civil defence volunteer who has died as the direct result of a war service injury shall receive such pension or gratuity as the Governor in Council may determine, chargeable upon the Revenue of the Colony:

Provided that no pension or gratuity shall be paid to an orphan brother or sister of a deceased civil defence volunteer if a pension or gratuity has been paid to any of the persons enumerated in paragraphs (a) and (b) of the definition of "family" contained in sub-section (2) of this section:

Provided further that no such pension or gratuity shall be payable if such war service injury was sustained more than seven years before the death of such volunteer.

(2) For the purposes of this section "family" means—

(a) a child of the deceased civil defence volunteer who—

(i) has not attained the age of fourteen years, or

(ii) is over fourteen years of age but has not attained the age of fifteen years and is receiving full-time instruction at a school;

(b) a parent of the deceased civil defence volunteer who is in need arising from the fact that he is not less than sixty-five years of age, or, in the case of a female parent, that she is not less than sixty years of age, or from some infirmity or other adverse condition which is not of a temporary character, and to whose support the deceased civil defence volunteer had been regularly contributing during the year immediately preceding the date of his death, or during such other period as the Governor in Council may in any special case determine ;

(c) an orphan brother or sister of the deceased civil defence volunteer who—

(i) has not attained the age of fourteen years, or

and is in need, and to whose support the deceased civil defence volunteer had been regularly contributing during the year immediately preceding the date of his death or during such other period as the Governor in Council may in any special case determine.”
