THE STATUTE LAWS OF CYPRUS

No. 21 OF 1957.

A LAW TO AMEND THE FORESHORE PROTECTION LAW.

CAP. 92.
16 of 1954

JOHN HARDING,
Governor.

[12th August, 1957.]

BE it enacted by His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Cyprus as follows :—

1. This Law may be cited as the Foreshore Protection (Amendment) Law, 1957, and shall be read as one with the Foreshore Protection Law (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Law").

Short title.
Cap. 92.
16 of 1954.

Amendment of section 3 of the principal Law.

2. Section 3 of the principal Law is hereby amended by the addition at the end thereof of the following new sub-sections :—

“(4) Upon a second conviction of any person for an offence against this Law involving the removal of any stones, shingle, gravel, sand or other substance from the foreshore, any vehicle, vessel or other receptacle used in or for such removal shall be forfeited to the Crown.

(5) The Commissioner may appoint watchmen for the protection of the foreshore.”.

Amendment
of section 3A of the principal
Law.

3. Section 3A of the principal Law (as set out in section 3 of Law 16 of 1954) is hereby amended as follows :—

(a) by the insertion in sub-section (1) thereof, immediately after the words “police officer” (line 1), of the words “or any watchman appointed by the Commissioner under section 3”;

(b) by the insertion in sub-section (3) thereof, immediately after the words “police officer” (line 3), of the words “or watchman”.

Insertion of new section 5A in the principal Law.

4. The principal Law is hereby amended by the insertion therein, immediately after section 5, of the following new section :—

“Grant of permits to remove materials from the foreshore.

5A—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3 the Commissioner may, in his discretion, grant to any person a permit to remove stones, shingle, sand, gravel or other substance from any part of the foreshore which has been made the subject of a notice under paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of section 3, or any portion thereof, whether public or privately owned, but subject to the consent of the owner in the case of any part of the foreshore privately owned, and may levy such fees or charges payable to the public revenue as may be prescribed in respect of any permit or the rights thereby conferred.

(2) The Governor may by order prescribe the form of any such permit and the restrictions and conditions applicable thereto, and may prescribe the fees and charges to be levied under sub-section (1) of this section and the manner of assessment thereof, either in respect of the Colony as a whole or such area or areas thereof as may be specified in the order.”.

12th August, 1957.

J. F. SYMONS,
Acting Administrative Secretary.
